P.C.

1. This chamber summons is made by the applicant-B.M.Shah for being impleaded as additional claimant. On perusal of the award, it is seen that there is mention of present applicant Mr. B.M.Shah as being the person who has purchased the rights of all the three original owners for valid consideration. In the award also payment is to be made by either owners or to Mr. B.M.Shah. In the circumstances, on considering the affidavit in support and the reply affidavit this chamber summons should be allowed. The Chamber Summons is therefore, allowed in terms of prayer clause (b). The original claimants to carry out the amendment within a period of three weeks from today. It is made clear that merely because the present applicant is made as party claimant that by itself would not preclude the other claimants from seeking relief from any other forum according to law.
